Wochenplanarbeit 16.03.2020 – 20.03.2020

Task 1

Writing DVD blurbs for TV programmes.

On the photos below you can see how a DVD blurb (photo 1) looks like and how to write a blurb (photo 2). Write three blurbs ((100 words per blurb) for your favourite movies or TV shows (Fernsehserien).

Writing a DVD blurb: checklist

Use the checklist to write and check your blurb.

- Start with an opening sentence, a pick-up line that makes the reader want to read on.
- Mention the genre.
- Introduce the main characters.
- Sum up the plot. Use the simple present. Keep your summary short.
- Don't use spoilers: don't give away too much of the plot.
- Say why the TV show is a must-watch. Use words and phrases to praise and advertise the TV show.
- Use adjectives to make your point stronger.
- Come up with fake quotes to praise the TV show.
- Include additional information to let people know what else is included on the DVD.
- Finish with a cliffhanger. Make your reader want to watch the TV show.
